Subject Complaint of Narasinga Rao, late Sheikdar of the Kibbanahalli Hobli, Tiptur Taluk in the matter of his retirement from Service.

Letter no. 5269 dated 2d April 1904 from the Revenue Commr. in Mysore.

As the Sheikdar stood transferred from Ichanur to Kibbanahalli Hobli, he requested on the 16th Septr 1902 that owing to some domestic inconvenience he might be allowed to remain in the former Hobli for some time longer or that he be granted privilege leave for 3 months. On the 29th Septr 1902 he petitioned the Divisional Asstt Commr also about his staying in the Ichanur Hobli, and he was informed that he might join his new Hobli after two months, otherwise he might retire from Service — In the interval the Amildar submitted the Sheikdar's leave application to the Asstt Commr (Mr Paramasiva Iyer) who ordered on the 4-10-1902 that if he applied for retirement 3 months' leave might be granted to the Sheikdar, but as he was 59 years old, he might be recommended for retirement.

~~and dismissed~~ The Sheikdar expressed his unwillingness to retire, & asked to be retained in Service till the end of 1902-03. He however stated that if his request could not be granted he might be given leave at once and then retired.

Paper no. 9. in the Ver. file —

In his reports dated 21st April and 21st May 1903, the Amildar (Mr. C. V. Narayana Rao) stated that the Sheikdar had become old and unfit for the active duties of Sheikdar and that he should be retired as he was bordering on his 60th year. On the 3d June 1903 the Dy Commr. (Mr. M. S. Narayana Rao) ordered that the Sheikdar might be retired from Service by the end of June 1903 & that his pension roll might be prepared & submitted Soon —

On return from privilege leave on the 30th June 1903, the Sheikdar reported himself for duty to the Amildar, but was informed that he had been retired. Thereupon, ie on the 6th July 1903, he complained to the Dy Commr. that it was hard that he should have been retired merely on the Amildar's recommendation, although he was strong enough to discharge the duties of his office for some time longer. The Dy Commr after perusal of the Sheikdars' Service Register, directed the Amildar to expedite the submission of his pension Roll -

With reference to the several Sheikdars' petitions addressed to H Highness the Maharaja & to Govt, complaining against the order of his retirement & of delay in sanctioning the pension, the Rev Commr remarks that the Dy Commr exceeded his powers in retiring the man, but that as the man is now 60 and was 59 when he was retired, & is reported to be unfit for further duty it is unnecessary to show the Sheikdar any further Concession -
